

Free & discounted places for The Business Year Network

Now in its ninth year, City Week is the premier gathering of the international financial services community. It brings together industry leaders and policy makers from around the globe to consider the future of global financial markets. Topics range from the evolving role of London in the global economy, the evolution of financial crime, to new priority markets for financial services. With a collection of international and UK delegates City Week 2019 is one of the most influential events in the UK financial services industry calendar.

Over the course of City Week 2019, a highly eminent faculty of 60+ international speakers will explore crucial themes, including their economic and market impact. These speakers include:

Luis de Guindos, Vice-President
