

CTW Global 2025 to Drive Strategic Trade, Innovation, and Cross-Sector Growth in Dubai

Dubai, UAE – June 2025 – CTW Global 2025, organized by MIE Events DMCC, is set to return on October 8–9, 2025, at Atlantis The Palm, Dubai, as a premier international platform driving trade, investment, and innovation across the world’s fastest-evolving service sectors.

Strategically positioned at the heart of the UAE’s emergence as a global services hub, CTW Global 2025 brings together decision-makers, investors, and innovators from around the world. The event features a high-impact summit, industry-focused exhibition, interactive workshops, and curated B2B and B2G matchmaking, creating a dynamic environment for growth, collaboration, and knowledge exchange.

A Premier Platform for Global Business Development

As the global economy evolves with new technologies, workforce models, and sustainability priorities, CTW Global provides a unique opportunity for attendees to gain insights, forge strategic partnerships, and access emerging markets through targeted programming and real-time engagement.

Designed to facilitate both enterprise and government participation, the event fosters multilateral collaborations and sectoral exchanges that help shape the future of global services.

CTW Global 2025 connects national and international leaders, investors, and entrepreneurs, offering exclusive insights into the UAE’s mega projects and cross-border opportunities across nine pivotal sectors. The UAE’s services sector has seen robust growth, with exports reaching AED 739 billion in 2022, driven by tourism, transport, finance, and insurance. Additionally, a recent UAE–India free trade agreement is projected to boost bilateral non-oil trade to $100 billion over the next five years.
